Restoration Hardware Plans

August Century City Shopping Center Opening

Restoration Hardware commences construction in June for an end of August opening. The store will feature upscale decorated hardware and home furnishings.

J. Crew has just started construction for an August 1 opening date. The store will specialize in sportswear and casual wear for men and women.

The Limited space will be transformed into an Abercrombie & Fitch. It also will specialize in sportswear and casual wear for men and women.

Hugo Boss will open a new store in Century City for its men's high fashion suits and clothing.

Harry and David, which gained a national reputation for its mail order fruits from Oregon packages, will soon sell its product over the counter from the former California Orchids location in the Marketplace.

The Coach store will be moving into a larger space to become one of the chain's superstores. The store features leather goods and clothing.

Bernini, which specializes in men's and woman's high fashion apparel, is expanding.
