

7260 News

Spring 1999

Century City Shopping Center

Century City has landed one of the world's premier jewelry stores. Early this summer, Tiffany's will open a 4,500 square foot outlet opposite J. Crew's. The Beverly Hills Tiffany's located in the Rodeo Two complex will remain open.

The Pottery Barn begins a major expansion in June and hopes for a mid-summer completion. When the project is finished, the store will have grown from 4,500 to 7,800 square feet.

Gladstone's, P. F. Chang, and Wolfgang Puck are among those said to be interested in taking over the submarine shaped restaurant space formerly occupied by Dive.